Saturday, March 4, 1-3pm
or
Sunday, March 5, 1-3pm

Drepung Gomang Center for Engaging Compassion
411 N. Hubbards Lane, Louisville, KY 40207

Good people work on making peace every day. Little people and big ones can strengthen their caring muscles – through their thoughts, words and actions – to create a world where everyone is cared for.

This two-hour event includes fun story-telling, little-ones' mindfulness practices, and the creation of new and traditional Tibetan art with visiting Tibetan Buddhist monks!

For children who are currently in Kindergarten through 5th Grade.

One parent or guardian required to stay. Limited enrollment, so register early!

Sign up in person at the center, online at DrepungGomangUSA.org, or by calling 502-614-5616.

PRE-registration required. $10 per child.

The fee covers supplies and helps provide food, housing, medical needs and education for the 2000 monks living at Drepung Gomang Monastery in India.
